

FINISH COUNT FOR ELECTION

State Board Of Canvassers Completes Its Work
On The Official Electors.

LA FOLLETTE'S PAPER OUT SHORTLY

Senator Will Take His Family To Washington This Winter And Will Rent A House There Instead Of Living At Hotel.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 27.—The state board of canvassers met this afternoon and canvassed the vote on the presidential electors.
The highest vote in each party group was as follows:
Taft, 247,747.
Ryan, 166,632.
Childs, 11,572.
Dolan, 28,170.
Social labor, 314.
The vote of state elect and the constitutional amendments is complete except waiting for one county to report.

Senator La Follette's political weekly will not appear until after January 1, says the senator today.
He goes to Washington a week hence for the session.
He will take a house this year instead of living at a hotel and will take his children along instead of putting them in a private school here. Senator La Follette will be back during the holidays to work on the proposed publication.

STRUCK AND KILLED BY ST. PAUL TRAIN

Rudolph Slamka, Returning at Dusk from Squirrel Hunt, Met Instant Death Wednesday Night.
While walking on the C. & St. P. railroad tracks in the vicinity of Anderson's crossing, three miles north of the city, Wednesday evening, Rudolph Slamka was struck and instantly killed by a passenger train in charge of Conductor Jones. The body was thrown to one side of the track and when the train had been stopped and an investigation was made by the crew, no sign of life could be discovered. Subsequently, at Ryan & Son's undertaking room, Dr. R. W. Edson made an examination and found that the skull had been fractured at the base of the brain, the right arm broken at the elbow, and the right limb fractured halfway between the hip and knee. Slamka had been hunting squirrels in the vicinity of the county farm and it was after dark when he started homeward. His gun was broken and shell corn which he had been carrying in a small bag was scattered in all directions. The identity of the man was established by a hunting license found in the pocket which set forth the fact that he was 24 years of age. He was unmarried, came to the country from Austria about a year ago, and lived with D. Vignoni, a brother-in-law, at 217 Glen street.

FLAGMAN'S TOWER WAS BLOWN DOWN

At the Five Points Wednesday Night and Johnny Cronin Had Leg Broken and Was Burned by Stove.
During the wind-storm Wednesday evening the tower at the Five Points was blown down and wrecked and Johnny Cronin, who was visiting Arthur Connors, the gate-keeper, was severely injured. The stove, which contained a brick fire, toppled over on Cronin, breaking his right leg between the knee and hip, and his left arm about the elbow and wrist. Connors escaped with some severe bruises. Russell's ambulance conveyed the Cronin boy to the Morley hospital, where Dr. R. P. Woods attended to his injuries.

BALLOON CARNIVAL AT NORTH ADAMS

Board of Directors Has Arranged for Five or Six Balloons to Ascend.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
North Adams, Mass., Nov. 27.— Preparations have been completed by the Aero Club of America for the big balloon carnival to be given for its members here tomorrow. Balloons owned by the club members in Boston, Springfield, North Adams and Pittsfield are expected to take part in the ascension.
Practically all of the ballooning this season has been done by the New England clubs, and one of the objections filed against the club officers at the recent annual meeting was that nothing had been done in the way of old-fashioned ballooning for the members this year. The new board of directors therefor decided upon the carnival as a means of placating some of the members, and with five or six balloons starting at once, the event is expected to be the largest balloon feature held in the east this year.

EXECUTED TODAY FOR MURDER OF HIS PAL

Crooked-Neck Smith Hung in Monteal for Killing of Mike Malone at Races.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Montreal, Nov. 27.—This is the date fixed for the execution of "Crooked-neck" Smith, an all-round criminal who was convicted last September of the murder of his pal, Mike Malone.
In the early summer Smith and three friends had been attending the races in Montreal. He and Malone had a quarrel over the division of their gambling gains, and each threatened to have vengeance. Smith returned to an opium joint, where he found Malone, and without the slightest warning, shot him dead. The mur-derer escaped to New York, but a few weeks later returned to Montreal and surrendered to the police.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE MUCH INTERESTED

Failure of the Ohio German Insurance Company in Toledo Is Noted Today.
Local property-owners are much interested in the failure of the Ohio German Fire Insurance Company of Toledo, Ohio. Many policies are held by local persons and the report given out by the authorities is that the assets will not pay twenty-five cents on the dollar. The failure appears due to mismanagement of business matters.
Judge Here Monday: Judge Grinn will be down Monday morning between nine and ten to set cases which have not yet been tried. At ten o'clock he will go to Monroe. The case of Ambrose vs. Vaughan, which was set for this afternoon, and the case of Lie vs. Anderson, which was set for tomorrow morning, have gone over.

ANNIVERSARY OF MORGAN'S ESCAPE

Famous Confederate Raider, Made Get-away From Federal Prison 45 Years Ago.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Columbus, O., Nov. 27.—Today was the forty-fifth anniversary of the escape of General John H. Morgan, the famous "raider," and Thomas H.
Illins from the penitentiary of this city. The sensation which the escape of the famous prisoners of war caused is still fresh in the memory of the older generation both North and South.
The cell from which Gen. Morgan escaped is still pointed out to visitors by the penitentiary. The round hole which formed the entrance to the tunnel through which the escape was effected may still be seen. Some years ago a tablet commemorating the event was placed above the cell door. Since the day of Morgan's escape the cell has never been occupied.
Accounts of the escape differ and are told in many and varied forms.
The most plausible, however, is that a hole was cut in the stone slab in the floor, through the ground beneath into an air chamber which runs beneath the cell block. Moving along the air chamber the prisoners worked their way eight cells east and then started digging out beneath the wall and under the wall until the level of the female department was reached.
Here the tunnel was dug upward and opened in the yard. Securing a rope and a hook on the night of November 27, 1863, the escape was effected by throwing the hook upon the wall and climbing the rope. After clearing the prison wall Gen. Morgan haled a passing cab and was driven to the depot. He took a train for Cincinnati and from there crossed the Ohio river into Kentucky where he met his fate in trying to avoid recapture.

BAPTISTS OBSERVE CENTENNIAL DATE

Churches Through Alabama and

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 27.—Baptist leaders from many points throughout Alabama and neighboring states rallied here today to take part in the centennial celebration arranged by the local Baptist churches. The centennial exercises will continue over tomorrow. The program provides for sermons and addresses by many prominent representatives of the denomination, both lay and clerical.

BUGGY UPSET OVER BANK IN DARKNESS

Occupants Were Thrown Out of Buggy but Uninjured—Accident Occurred Near Orfordville.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Orfordville, Nov. 27.—Last evening while going to Broadhead over the new road, Edward Kaatrud and Neva Tollorade were thrown from the buggy in which they were driving, by the upsetting of the rig over a high embankment, along which the road runs.
The old road has been closed by the railroad and a new road was built around it on the embankment. Their carriage went off the embankment on the north side. Luckily for them they were not at all injured, although their buggy was entirely demolished. The horses also were unhurt. The place where they were driving and at which the accident occurred is dangerous because of the height of the bank here. There were two other couples who were also driving to Broadhead the same way, but they managed to get by without any trouble. The darkness of the night was partly the cause of the upset.

SOUTH PAYS HONOR TO SCOUT'S MEMORY

Interesting Exercises Held on Date of Death of Confederate Soldier.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 27.—Interesting exercises were held today in observance of the forty-fifth anniversary of the execution of Sam Davis, the noted Confederate scout, who was captured in the Federal lines at Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 22, 1863, with papers giving the field positions of the Federal troops, and hanged as a spy five days later by order of General Dodge.
"And I a thousand lives, I would lose them all before I would betray my friends" were the words spoken by Davis as he sat on the edge of his coffin, condemned to be executed, after Gen. Dodge had offered him his "horse, side arms and an escort to the Federal lines" if he would tell who the traitor was from whom he obtained the papers found on him when captured.
The last session of the Tennessee legislature made an appropriation for a statue of Davis to be erected on Capitol Hill in this city. The statue is of bronze and of heroic proportions and was modeled by George Julian Zohny, the well known sculptor.

ARMY AND NAVY FOOTBALL GAME COMES OFF TOMORROW

Big Preparations For Annual Athletic And Social Event—Odds Favor Navy.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 27.—Philadelphia hotels are crowded with visitors in anticipation of the annual football game on Franklin Field tomorrow between the eleven representing the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and the United States Military Academy at West Point. In honor of the occasion business houses, hotels and other buildings in the downtown district are decorated with the blue and gold of the Navy, and the black, gold and gray of the Army.
The game tomorrow promises to be as brilliant an event socially as any of its predecessors. The attendance will be representative of the youth and beauty of the entire land.
It will not be confined to the younger set, however, for there will be no old of the gray-headed rear admirals, major generals and officers of all other grades of the united service. And besides the War and Navy departments, every other department of the government will be represented.
The railroads have made extensive preparations to handle the large crowds of visitors. Special trains will be run from Annapolis, Washington, New York, West Point and many other points, included in the official parties from the national capital will be members of the cabinet and high ranking officers of the Army and Navy.
The two football teams reached the city today and were given rousing receptions. Supporters, theatre parties and other festivities will, as usual, precede the big game, but in this part of the program the members of the two teams will have no part. They will keep up the simple life which their training demands and will retire early so as to be in the best possible trim for the big battle tomorrow.
The betting odds today are slightly in favor of the Navy. Close critics of the two teams are of the opinion that the Annapolis boys have the better chance of victory, though they do not expect the contest to be a one-sided affair by any means. The manner in which West Point held the Yale team down to a 6-0 score showed that the Navy will have worthy antagonists, and the Army followers are confident that their team has at least an even chance of winning the game.
On all sides it is conceded that the contest should be one well worth witnessing. The demand for seats is enormous, and the over-present speculators today are asking and receiving $5 and upward for their tickets.

der false pretenses.

ENTRANCING SCENE AT ASSEMBLY HALL

Ballroom Was Converted into a Woodland Symphony for Railway Trainmen's Annual Ball.

Hedged in by a veritable grove of Christmas trees and a dim background where greens and yellow roses ran riot, and overhung with palms which flourished luxuriously in mid-air and great streamers of southern aulxins interwoven with red and white chrysanthemums, Assembly hall presented a scene of compelling beauty Wednesday evening. It was the occasion of the twenty-third annual ball of Rock River Lodge No. 216, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, but the scenic settings would have been adequate for a revel of the forest sprites in the "pinner" woods. Tropical foliage, bursting forth from moss-covered pumpkins, entirely concealed the shafts which carry the utilitarian electric fans; the orchestra stand had been converted into bower of fir trees and shrubbery; and curtains and tapestries and more plants and trees brought the gallery into perfect harmony with the scene.

Kauf & Hatch's musicians furnished a program of splendid dance numbers and nearly 250 couples took part in the festivities. Despite the inclement weather, over twenty-five visitors were present from Fond du Lac and large delegations also came from Mineral Point, Baraboo, Madison, Harvard, Milwaukee, and Chicago. The festivities were in progress until three o'clock Thanksgiving morning. All members of the lodge acted as a reception committee. Those in charge of the arrangements were: D. J. Davis, chairman, F. J. Dixon, J. J. Dea. The floor committee was composed of A. Tucker, chairman, J. J. Dill, L. O. Holloway, J. J. Kelley, W. C. Cowell, D. J. Barry, B. L. Millman, E. F. Boyer, and C. P. Conway.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Let us learn again the lesson which some forget, that in law is our surest hope, and that only in obedience to its eternal commands can we live in social order.

GOV. MALCOLM P. PATTERSON OF TENNESSEE, AT LEFT, THE NIGHT RIDER'S MASK WORN AT THE HANGING OF CAPTAIN RANKIN BY THE NIGHT RIDERS. LAW AND ORDER MUST PREVAIL IN TENNESSEE.

Nashville Tenn.—The Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor Patterson dwells considerably on the regrettable depredations of the night riders. During the past year this commonwealth has been in the throes of a civil strife worse than anything since the Civil war. Section against section, man against man, the whole state has been torn asunder.

Governor Patterson has used every influence to suppress the riotous outbreaks of the night riders, who have stopped at nothing and who have caused great loss of life and property in Tennessee. The governor's proclamation is so tinged with regret that in spite of his great effort to be thankful for the many blessings of prosperity and life it still has a shadow of sorrow such as have Thanksgiving proclamations seldom shown. The part which dwells with the troubles with the night riders is worded as follows:

"But in the midst of our prosperity there are clouds which darken the sky and cast their shadows on our path. Let us hope that these will presently pass away and that the same Divine hand which gathered will scatter them again, and the warning has been taken, and all our people learn again the lesson which some forget, that in law is our surest hope, and that only in obedience to its eternal commands can we live in social order, enduring peace, and fulfill the high mission of civilized life.

"Let us so live that good will and gentle peace may come down from heaven to bless us all that justice shall reign among us, that we be saved from intolerance, dissensions and suspicions and from the evils which flow therefrom to vex the state and divide the people.

"Let us pray that mercy will bring her balm of healing and bid up the wounds of bleeding hearts wherever they may be, that innocence will not suffer, that our land be washed of bloody stains, that we may have faith and hope and charity and not forget the gentle Son of God taught that charity is the greatest of these."

In the prosecution of the night riders by the grand jury startling surprises are found at almost every session. Prominent farmers who are highly respected in the community have been implicated with the night rider organization. Bulletments will soon be out against these and more trouble is looked for at that time.

The mask of the night riders at the hanging of Captain Rankin has been produced before the grand jury as evidence. It is ghastly in design black in color, and completely covers the face.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN YESTERDAY MORNING

Bruce Kilne Wins Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving Run in Fast Time Yesterday.

Bruce Kilne won the turkey which was offered as a prize in the cross-country run of the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving Day. The course was a three-mile one, the runner making the trip around the Horn.

The time of the winner, Kilne, was twenty-three and a half minutes. There were only two other entries, a great many of those who expected to run being unable to come or unwilling to face the elements. The other two runners, H. Rendahl and Ben Eiler, followed Kilne out on the course a minute apart.

On next Saturday night the Y. M. C. A. basketball team will play the last year's high school team at the building. The game will be open to the public and no charge will be made for admission. On December 3 the local association team will play the Milton college five here.

Teddy or Eskimo Doll

This is a distinctive novelty of 1908 in Dolls. It will gain more popularity than the Teddy Bear. With removable hood, disk joints and steel pens and imported voice, it is almost indestructible and will outlast a dozen other dolls. The Teddy Doll is made in eight different colors of best silk bear skin plush with sleeping eyes and blonde or brunette curls. It is exceedingly pretty and graceful and is surely a highly desirable gift for any child.

SUIT SALE 1-3 OFF

We have enjoyed this season a better sale of suits than ever before. Our suits have taken remarkably well and now there are left but 100 suits. To dispose of these quickly—while there is still a call for suits—we will mark them down to just 1-3 off on any suit in the lot. Included in the lot are a number of the sample suits which were originally selling at 1.3 less than regular prices and these too have received a proportionate cut in price. The suits are all 1908 fall and winter patterns and a great deal of care was used in the selection so that our line would be right up to the minute in style, colors and fabrics. We mention but 3 numbers to give an idea of the way the prices go.

OUR DIRECTOIRE STYLE SUIT of black broadcloth of extra good quality trimmed with black satin and satin buttons, stock collar and large lapels, coat lined with gray satin, full gored skirt with two rows of satin bands and satin buttons down the front, cuffs, collar and pockets piped with satin bands, sold for $28.50, at..... $19.00

OUR MODEL SUIT of taupe broadcloth, trimmed with bands of same material edged with black same, coat 40 inches long, made with prints, gored skirt with self trimming, an exceedingly good style, $37.50 value, at..... $25.00
(See illustration on right side.)

BLUE VELVET SUIT. Coat 40 inches long, black satin trimmed very prettily, buttons of fancy design made of black satin, 15 gored skirt, two-folds, trimmed with satin and buttons, $45.00, now..... $28.50

BLACK BROADCLOTH COAT, 54 inches long, half lined. Empire style, trimmings of satin and buttons. $10.00
(See illustration on right side.)

FURS AT REMARKABLE PRICES

We are able to offer a lot of Fur Sets at some very low prices, one lot purchased last July when things were tight and prices low. Furs have advanced since then almost 10 per cent. Yet, our selling prices leave us just a fair margin over their cost. Here are a few numbers:

MINK SET. Pillow muf with five heads and five tails. A set that no one sells at less than $37.50, our price..... $25.00

BLENDED SQUIRREL SET, a very fine fur and an exceptional value at.... $10.00

Other Sets, with either throws or scarfs, plain muffs, pillow or rug muffs, in blended mink, Martin Isabel foxes, blended rat, French coney.

A good number in Fur Coats is one 33 inches long, of fine Russian Pony, well made and trimmed, skinner satin lined throughout, semi-fitting back,.... $40.00

SHE WAS DISAPPOINTED.

"Well, that ends football for me," said the old lady who was going home on the street car after the game. "Wasn't it up to your expectations, huh?" queried the man addressed. "Not by a long shot, and I'll give that reminder of mine a bit of my mind when I get home. It's been coming due for the last five years to see a game of football, and now he shall hear what I think of it."

"You are disappointed, then?" "Of course, I am," William said there'd be broken arms. "Did you see any?"

"Well, no." "William said there'd be broken legs. "Can't say that I did." "William said there'd be broken heads and necks and backs, but did anything of the sort happen? Was any one carried off on a stretcher? Did they have to ring for the ambulance? Was anybody lifted up dead?" "I must confess that I saw nothing of the kind," replied the man after leaving a sigh. "No, nor I, nor anybody else," William said that blood would flow like water, but there was no blood. He said the

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

The Bureau of the Census has just compiled the statistics of marriage and divorce covering a period of 20 years from 1887 to 1906, inclusive. It is an interesting study, and demonstrates that marriage is no longer a lottery that many people ignore its sacred obligations.

"The total number of marriages recorded during the twenty years from 1887 to 1906, inclusive, was 12,322,041. The number annually reported increased from 483,063 in the year 1887 to 853,250 in the year 1906. The increase year by year was by no means uniform. The marriage rate is quickly responsive to changes in economic conditions.

"A small increase shown for 1893 and an actual decrease in the succeeding years reflect the influence of the panic of 1892, and normal conditions do not appear to have been restored in the matrimonial market until the year 1899. It is computed that if the average annual increase in marriages during the five years ending with 1892 had continued for the next six years, the aggregate number of marriages contracted during the latter period would have been greater than it was by 259,813.

"It is to be presumed that a considerable number of persons in this large total never contracted marriage. This suggests a loss to the community heretofore little considered in connection with periods of financial depression.

"The marriage rate in the United States in the year 1906 was 53 per 10,000 population. Based upon the adult unmarried (single, widowed, or divorced) population, the rate becomes 321 per 10,000, indicating that in each year something over 3 per cent of the unmarried adult population marry.

"The marriage rate based on the total population is higher in the United States than in any other country for which reliable statistics are available. But taking the marriageable population as the basis—that is, the population which is of marriageable age but not married—the rate in the United States is not as high as it is in Hungary, but is still higher than in any of the other countries included in the comparison.

"The total number of divorces reported for the twenty years, 1887 to 1906, inclusive, was 916,625. For the earlier investigation, covering the twenty years, 1867 to 1886, inclusive, the number reported was 228,716, or hardly more than one-third of the number recorded in the second twenty years.

"At the beginning of the forty-year period, covered by the two investigations, divorces occurred at the rate of 10,000 a year; at the end of that period the annual number was about 66,000. This increase, however, must be considered in connection with increases in population.

"An increase of 20 per cent in population between the years 1870 to 1880 was accompanied by an increase of 79 per cent in the number of divorces granted.

"In the next decade, 1880 to 1890, the population increased 25 per cent and divorces 70 per cent, and in the following decade, 1890 to 1900, an increase of 21 per cent in population was accompanied by an increase of 66 per cent in the number of divorces. In the six years from 1900 to 1906, population, as estimated, increased 10.5 per cent and divorces 29.3 per cent.

"It thus appears that at the end of the forty-year period, divorces were increasing about three times as fast as population, while in the first decade (1870 to 1880) they increased only about two and two-thirds as fast.

"The divorce rate per 100,000 population increased from 29 in 1870 to 82 in 1906. In the former year there was 1 divorce for every 3,411 persons and in the latter year 1 for every 1,218. Since it is only married people who can become divorced, a more significant divorce rate is that which is based, not upon total population, but upon the total married population.

"The rate per 100,000 married population was 81 in the year 1870 and 200 in the year 1906. This comparison indicates that divorce is at present two and one-half times as common, compared with married population, as it was forty years ago. A divorce rate of 200 per 100,000 married population is equivalent to 2 per 1,000 married population. Assuming that 1,000 married people represent 500 married couples, it follows that in each year 4 married couples out of every 1,000 secure a divorce.

"This does not mean that only 4 marriages out of 1,000 are terminated by divorce. The rate, it will be noted, is an annual rate, continuously operative, and comes far short of measuring the probability of ultimate divorce. The available data indicates, however, that not less than 1 marriage in 12 is ultimately terminated by divorce.

"Divorce rates appear to be much higher in the United States than in any of the foreign countries for which statistics relating to this subject have been obtained.

"The first five years of married life include the largest number of divorces, and the number gradually decreases until the 18th year when the number subsides. This all goes to prove that a lot of people get together and attempt to establish a home, who have but little conception of what the term implies, and who are so illimated that separation is the only solution.

An item in going the rounds of the state press to the effect that Janesville will pay out $100,000 this year to beet-growers. This is misleading and does an injustice to the industry. The Janesville factory has a capacity of 600 tons of beets per day, and will run this season from 80 to 100 days, grinding from 50,000 to 60,000 tons of beets worth from $150 to $5 per ton. This means, in the neighborhood of $300,000 to the growers for pin money, for most of the beets are raised in garden patches of from 5 to 10 acres.

The independent steel manufacturers are a little skeptical about Mr. Carnegie's philanthropy on the tariff question, and regard it as a plea for monopoly on the part of the great corporation in which he is interested. It all depends on whose ox is gored.

RUMORS ALARM AUSTRIANS.

Danger of Conflict in Balkans Causes Panic in Bourses.

Vienna, Nov. 27.—Demoralization, resulting from rumors of a forthcoming conflict in the Balkans, seized the bourses here and at Budapest Thursday and brought many of the prices below the level reached in the panic during the emperor's dangerous illness last year.

Many adverse rumors in circulation here obviously are unfounded, but real anxiety surrounds the grave Austro-Turkish relations and the divergent views concerning the conference indicated in Russia's latest note to Austria. Further alarm was created by an apparently well grounded report of the approaching conclusion of an anti-Austrian treaty between Turkey, Serbia and Montenegro.

Four Viennese newspapers have been confiscated for circulating reports concerning the movement of troops.

Here is where we interest the children under 16 years of age. Any child, boy or girl, can enter; makes no difference how young—if they can't talk their parents can enter them. All that is necessary is to leave their name and age, which we put in a box. Every day at 5 o'clock one name is drawn. This entitles the lucky child to a 25c toy. It is not necessary for the child to be here. The name will be posted in the window. They can get their toy any time before Dec. 25. The sooner you get the children entered the more chance they have.

DENTISTRY

The teeth are so necessary to your welfare that one should never wait till they give pain before going to the dentist, but go twice a year and have them examined and put in order, by so doing you save yourself expense and pain. Many people don't appreciate the blessing of good teeth until it is too late. Remember your own teeth, the ones given you by nature are the best, so keep them just as long as possible. You can do this by consulting

John-Brown Nuptials Were Followed by a Dinner at the Hotel Myers—Several Other Marriages.

Leo Brown of Beloit and Miss Evangeline Johnson of Sparta were wedded by Rev. R. C. Denison at the Congregational church yesterday morning. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Johnson of Sparta, and Fred Edison was best man. A wedding dinner was served to a company of twenty-four at the Hotel Myers, the parlors having been appropriately decorated in honor of the event, and the company subsequently repaired to the home of Alderman Harry Brown, where they were entertained until the departure of the happy couple for Chicago on the 6:45 train. Miss Mollie Davidson of Watertown was here for the wedding.

McDermott wedding. The wedding of Miss Jeanette McDermott of Janesville and Patrick Henry Crowley of Freeport was solemnized at St. Mary's church by the Rev. Fr. W. A. Gobel at eight o'clock Thanksgiving Day morning. Miss Nora McDermott, a sister, attended the bride and Frank McDermott was best man. Following the ceremony the party of thirty were driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott, where an elaborate repast was served. Subsequently the happy couple departed on a brief honeymoon tour through Iowa. The groom, who is now engaged in the furniture and undertaking business at Freeport, was for a number of years employed at the W. H. Ashcraft store in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Crowley will be at home to friends in the Illinois city after November 30.

Rev. J. H. Tippet officiated at the wedding of Miss Alice Teubert and Roy O. Cox at the St. Charles hotel Wednesday evening. The bride is a niece of Landlord Albert Teubert and the groom is a prosperous farmer in the town of Fulton, where the happy couple will henceforth make their home.

KRELL'S ORCHESTRA AT GOLF CLUB BALL

Again Won Plaudits of Admiring Throng—Many Visitors at Thanksgiving Night Event.

Nearly a year ago Krell's Chicago orchestra transported a great company of Janesville dancers to the glittering gates of the seventh heaven, or a very satisfactory imitation of the same. It was inevitable that these weavers of musical arabesques and the magic spell that evokes warblers for a seventh octave from formal people in full dress, should return, and return they did last evening under the auspices of the Bluebird Golf club. There were W. H. Krell, the leader, performing tricks of ingenuity with the piano-keys and bowing neck.

Four Items

you should know about.

Lyndon Corn, 2 cans 25c.
Sweet Telephone Peas, 2 cans 25c.
Tender Wax Beans, 2 cans 25c.
Casino Succotash, 2 cans 25c.

There is something about each one of these items that you will like, something a little better than the ordinary run of similar goods.

One has the delicious sweetness hard to get, another the pronounced fresh flavor, another may be more tender, etc. Try them, you will probably use lots of them.

edgements with the same old sorrel smile; John Serney, violin conductor; John Kozak, cornet; Joseph Fisher, clarinet; James Churn, trombone; and a drummer who simply "knew when," so far as musical effluence might be concerned. All the new melodies and all the old ones, with variations and new flourishes, were on the program and so were circle two-steps, barn dances, and co-illion figures.

The superb decorations of the previous evening had been left intact at Assembly hall and the ball-room became a scene of animation about nine o'clock when the throng of local society people and visitors began to arrive. Beautiful is a much-abused adjective, but it should have its full intrinsic value when applied to the new costumes which were worn for the first time on this occasion and which made each dance number an alluring picture for the spectators. If any there were. Under the direction of Mrs. Bowerman a buffet luncheon was served throughout the evening and the final waltz was played at three o'clock this morning.

Among out-of-town guests were: Miss Isabel Carpenter of New York; Miss Rowe and Miss Adelaide Rowe of Ft. Worth, Texas; George Peterson of Evanston, Ill.; William McKee, John Stewart, Lawrence Dally, and Victor Whitson of Chicago and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sutherland who are at present

Molasses

Is fast being recognized as a good feed for all stock, especially horses and cattle.
It is a great aid in helping to digest the other foods but it is hard to feed when in the sticky form as it comes from a barrel. Also you must know how much to feed in connection with other hay and grain and not over-feed.

Badger Horse Feed

Is a mixture of molasses, cracked corn, oil meal, ground barley and oats, thoroughly mixed and is a perfectly balanced grain feed for horses.
It is kiln dried, very nice to handle and is the cheapest good feed on the market. Sells for $1.10 per 100 lbs., $27 per ton.
If you prefer we have Bar Corn, Oats, Ground Barley, Corn and Oat Feed, ground to order, Bran, Oil Meal, etc., of the best quality at reasonable prices.

SUNK IN COLLISION

Steamer Finance Is Rammed
by Freighter Georgic,

DISASTER OFF SANDY HOOK

Three Passengers and One Member of Crew Drowned—One Victim Is a Woman from Panama Who Refuses to Be Rescued.

New York, Nov. 27.—The Panama line steamer Finance, outward bound, was run into off Sandy Hook in the fog Thursday by the White Star freighter Georgic, and sank within ten minutes. The Panama carried 80 passengers and of these three were drowned, together with one member of her crew.

The rest of the passengers, who included 19 women and 14 children, as well as others of the crew, were rescued by the boats of the Georgic. The freighter was not damaged.

Of the passengers lost, one was a woman, Miss Irene Campbell of Panama, who clung frantically to the rail of the sinking vessel and could not be persuaded to release her hold, nor were the men who manned the small boats able forcibly to remove her. She was seen clinging determinedly to the vessel as it was engulfed. William H. Todd, third assistant engineer, jumped overboard and was lost. When a roll of the passengers of the Finance was called, it was found that Charles H. Schweinhart, a policeman of Panama, and Henry Muller, a railroad conductor of Panama, had disappeared and there is little doubt that they were drowned.

Had Been Tied Up by Fog.

The disaster occurred in the main ship channel off Sandy Hook at eight o'clock in the morning and as both vessels were groping their way through a fog that had held up maritime commerce in local waters for three days. The Finance had crept out of her berth last Monday, bound for Colon, but down outside of New York's gateway ran into a blanket of fog which compelled her to anchor. Early Thursday morning the watchful skippers of fog-bound craft in and about the bar noticed signs that the fog was breaking away, and there was a concerted movement among the anchored vessels to get under way. Several moved cautiously, warning blasts of the whistles indicating their positions, which as yet could not be made out at any distance.

The Finance had weighed anchor and was picking her way down the Swath channel when Capt. Mowbray, who was on the bridge, heard the whistle of an approaching liner. The Finance was immediately ordered astern and was slowly backing when the Georgic, in-bound from Liverpool, loomed out of the fog and a moment later crashed into the port side and just abut the beam of the Finance.

Big Hole Torn in Her Side.

The prow of the freighter penetrated the side of the Finance nearly ten feet, tearing away an unoccupied stateroom and leaving a ragged hole through which the water rushed in. The Panama steamer heeled far over to starboard, while men and women, many of whom had been awakened from a sound sleep, were thrown from their berths. Hastily covering themselves with bedclothing and making little attempt to dress, these rushed in a panic to the main deck, which was fast sinking to the surface of the water.

Many of the passengers jumped overboard before they could be restrained by the crew of the injured steamer, not stopping even to provide themselves with life preservers. That more were not lost was due to the discipline of the crew of the Finance and the prompt and intelligent work of the sailors from the Georgic.

MICHIGAN PLEASES WILSON.

Secretary Satisfied with Efforts to Suppress Aphthous Fever.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Chief A. D. Melvin of the bureau of animal industry left for Washington late Thursday after expressing satisfaction that the campaign to suppress the local outbreak of the foot and mouth disease among cattle was well under way. Five herds, numbering about sixty milch cows, were appraised in Livonia township by B. F. Taggart of Romeo, Mich., under the auspices of the Michigan livestock sanitary commission. The owners were allowed from $10 to $50 for the condemned animals. Friday the slaughtering and burying of the diseased cattle began under the direction of Dr. P. H. Mullooney of Houston.

Cave-In Kills Two Lads.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 27.—Arthur Grossman, 12, and Herbert Hodelt, 11, were killed by a cave-in Thursday. The lads were members of a party who had dug a cave in an embankment and went to play there after dinner. When they did not return in the evening a search was instituted and it was found the roof of the cave had fallen in.

Lewis Newgass Is Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 27.—Lewis Newgass, general manager of the Schweinschield & Sulzberger Packing Company in this city and widely known in Chicago, where he had been a packer and afterward manager for Nelson Morris & Co., died suddenly Thursday, aged 60 years.

"SAPHO" AND HIS WIFE.

Sapho was merely a galley boy in the composing room of a Kansas City newspaper. He was called Sapho because that is another story.

He was a small young man. Nor was he handsome. But his energy and cheerfulness were in inverse proportion to his size and lack of pulchritude.

One day Dan Cupid, who cares little for looks, but is strong on hearts, marked him for his own.

Sapho loved a winsome Kansas City maiden. And she, on her part, saw qualities in him that others did not see.

Following established precedent, the course of true love did not run smooth. When the couple asked to marry, the parents of the girl said, "Height of foolishness, on his meager wages."

"But the matrix is cast," said Sapho. Then, the printers conspiring, he and the girl were married.

The sequel?

Sapho's optimism won. The parents said the girl "might have done worse." And the twain have already proved that two souls with but a single thought can be comfortably kept in two bodies on Sapho's wages—which have been raised.

And this is Sapho's wife's recipe for happiness: "I would rather live in a dirt floor cabin with the man I love than to be supported in luxury by a husband not my choice."

Al, who little woman!

That was the recipe the old alchemist hunted for in vain—the alchemy that turns all base metals into purest gold.

To go a little further with this little love story, the wife is ambitious. She says Sapho must some day be the owner of a job print shop of his own.

A common love tale, this?

Yes, not uncommon. And yet—

Oh, ye calloused hearts grown worldly-wise, weary women of your social set, and listless lovers, ye that have flippantly flattered away the treasures of your fresh affections, ye that have dribbled silly sentiment over a dozen tentative and various loves—oh, bankrupt souls, what would ye not give for one thrill of the pure and honest love of Sapho and his wife?

AMENDMENTS WON

STATE AID FOR PUBLIC HIGH-WAYS MOST POPULAR.

HAD MAJORITY OF 66,645

Income Tax Also Approved—Five Counties Against Electorate Amendment—Governor Given
More Time.

Madison, Nov. 27.—The vote on four amendments to the constitution, which were submitted to the people at the state in the recent election, shows that the deepest interest was taken in the matter of the improvement of public highways. The total for this amendment, granting the state the power to appropriate money for the improvement of the roads, was 25,000 more than was cast for any other amendment. One of the interesting features of the election is the large majority that was given the proposition regarding electors, requiring them to be citizens of the United States after 1912. This received a majority of 46,320 on a comparatively light vote.

Seven counties voted against the proposition to grant state aid for building good roads. These were Calumet, Dodge, Kewaunee, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Sheboygan and Washington. The largest majority against the proposition was cast by Manitowoc county with 954. Washington county came next, with a majority against of 798.

The proposition for an income tax carried in every county in the state except Calumet, which gave a majority of 243 against it. On the electorate amendment five counties voted against it. These were Calumet, Kewaunee, Shawano, which gave a majority of just 20 votes against Washington and Winnebago counties. The heaviest majority against the proposition was in Winnebago county, where it ran up 1,972.

Official figures: State aid for public highways, total vote, 115,113, majority, 66,645; income tax, total vote, 130,273, majority, 53,349; increasing limit for signing bills, total vote, 112,807, majority, 57,285; electors, total vote, 128,532, majority, 46,320.

Cyclone at Stevens Point.

Stevens Point, Nov. 27.—A cyclone, which passed through the river district of this city, killed one man, made 20 families homeless, partially wrecked the plants of the Polish Brewing Company, the Coyo Furniture Manufacturing Company, and the Joerns Manufacturing Company, uninsured more than 25 houses, leveled almost two acres of barns and caused damage estimated at $15,000. Four persons were injured. Charles Lauer, a farmer living in a log cabin near Killbuck, a small town some distance between Grand Rapids and Stevens Point, was killed by being struck by a beam when his home was wrecked by the wind. The electric light plant, about two and a half miles north of the city, was also damaged, the city being left in total darkness.

Engineer Saved Many Lives.

La Crosse, Nov. 27.—Only the heroism of Julius Severson, engineer of La Crosse, saved the lives of 150 passengers in a passenger and freight wreck at Portage Junction, Ill., according to a written testimonial signed by all the passengers and submitted to Superintendent Cunningham of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, on the arrival of the train here. As train No. 47 drew near Portage Junction a freight was noticed just ahead. The freightman jumped and was killed, but the engineer, at the risk of his life, stuck to his post, applied the emergency brakes and succeeded in considerably reducing the speed of the train, which had been running 60 miles an hour at the time, before the freight was struck.

Search for Bank Robbers.

Chippewa Falls, Nov. 27.—A posse is searching the woods in the vicinity of Hannibal in an effort to get four men who burglarized the State bank of Holcombe. First reports from Holcombe stated that the burglars got no booty, but it is now known they stole $310 in silver coin, a silver watch and a diamond ring. A small safe containing about $3,000 was untouched. The burglars stole a handcar at Jim Falls and went to Holcombe. It is believed they are masquerading as door hunters.

To Assess Property at Full Value.

Madison, Nov. 27.—The county board of supervisors passed a resolution to have all property assessed at full value. In the past the assessment has been as near 80 per cent. as it was possible to reach. No fees of policemen for service in state causes will be allowed or turned over to the police pension fund. Chief of Police Baker urged that the law so provided, but the district attorney advised otherwise. Chief Baker will now commence a suit to test the validity of the law.

Farmers Wanted Too Much.

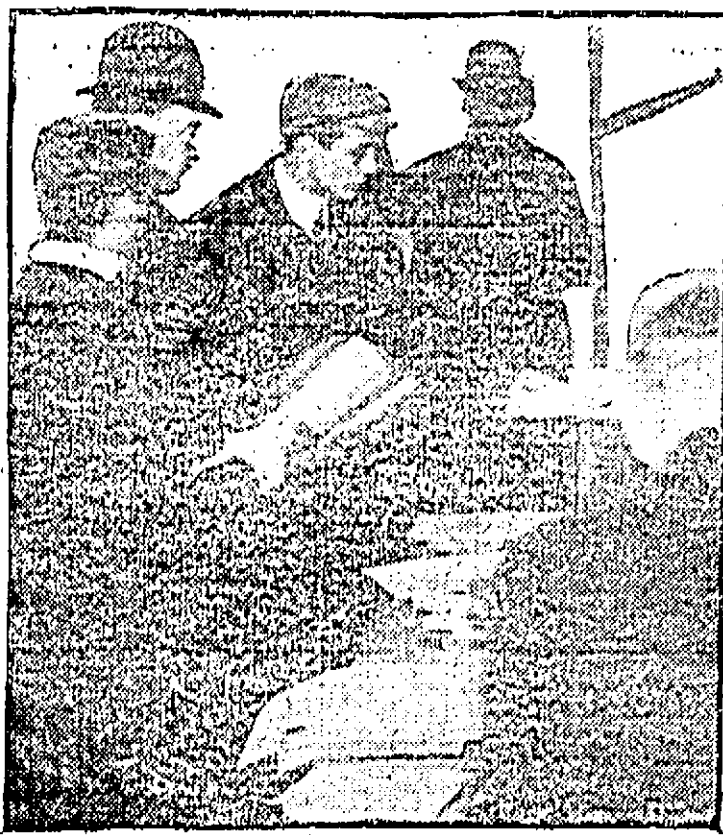

Kenosha, Nov. 27.—Chicago capitalists who have been projecting an electric railway from Kenosha to Lake Geneva announced that the deal is off because farmers demanded $80,000 for a right of way.

More Smallpox at Manitowoc.

Manitowoc, Nov. 27.—Sexton Schroeder is the latest victim of smallpox. His house and two others have been placed under quarantine. There are 30 cases of the disease now in the city.

Science and Invention

FOR GOLF AND BALL PLAYERS

Glove With Weights Assures an Effective Blow.

Noting that golf players, a theory which has been patented and is now being demonstrated by a German inventor is that by weighting the hands of the player the force applied in the delivery of a driving blow is augmented by the momentum developed by the added weight. This momentum when derived from weights applied to the hands of a player becomes a live impelling force, tending to cause the head of the club which strikes the ball to "follow through" or to follow the ball in the direction of the impact, thus obtaining a tendency to drive the ball. The result is that the ball is driven a greater distance.

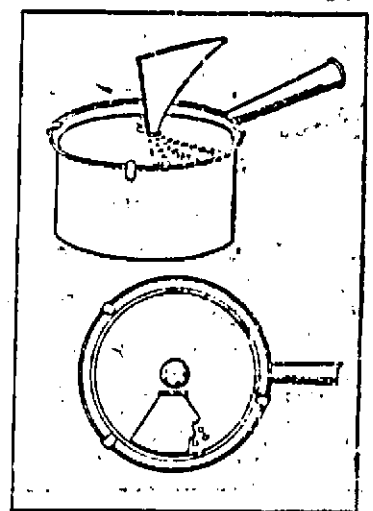

WEIGHTS IN GLOVE.

with the expenditure of the same effort on the part of the player. Forwarding or curving the weight of the stick does not accomplish the same result and, besides, imposes a strain on the muscles of the hand, whereas such is not the case with the application of weights to the hands. These weights are applied to the back of a glove. In order to avoid interference with the free opening of the hand and also to avoid a too great concentration of the weights, the latter are arranged in rows across the glove, but removed from the knuckle points. It is obvious that beneficial advantages can be secured in using this device in connection with baseball bats, cricket bats or wherever a driving blow is to be delivered.

IMPROVED CULINARY VESSEL

No Danger of Scalding the Hands
When Draining Off Hot Water.

In an improved cooking utensil patented by an Illinois man, the cook and housewife using it will be saved many a burn or scalding of the hands. In draining the boiling water from the ordinary vessel used to cook vegetables, etc., pouring of the liquid is almost unavoidable. The utensil shown here is adapted in a novel and thoroughly effective manner to retain the cover in position when tilted for draining the contents, so that there is no danger of injury to the user. The utensil shown here is of the soup-spoon type, with the usual handle and a detachable cover. On the rim are three spring clips which project over the edge and hold the cover in position. In the cover are a number of drainage openings, which are normally covered by a hinged lid or closure. The latter while sealing the opening will readily yield to steam pressure and thereby permit the escape of steam. As the utensil is tilted the hinged cover will naturally fall away from the cover, allowing the water to drain out through the openings.

ance of their mission, but the setting of them is often attended by disaster to the fingers of the person called upon to perform the task. The safety trap is a snap-trap. The snapper, which is designed for the annihilation of mice, is set by slightly pressing a lever with the thumb, while the larger one, for catching rats, is set by a foot pressure on the toe. Since the spring strikes only in a forward direction, there can be no danger either to the foot or fingers in setting the new trap.

Be Thrust Into a Bucket of Ice.

"Ice-cream freezing without labor." It seems as if it must be some magical process, to be performed only on the stage by the man who takes rabbits out of a high hat or does other seemingly impossible stunts, but it is an accomplishment which can now be performed by anyone. The newest ice-cream freezer is devoid of mechanism of any kind, and the apparatus with which it is made resembles a glass fruit jar more than anything else. Suddenly called upon for an acceptable hot-water dessert, the hostess in her company gown may slip away into the kitchen for a few moments, and before she has been missed, her guests are regaled with a delicious dish of ice cream. She returns without a soil on her clothing or a ruffle on her countenance—a thing impossible under ordinary circumstances, considering the inconvenience which she has accomplished in the few minutes of her absence.

There are several recipes and pieces of apparatus for easy ice-cream making, but they all contemplate the operation of a machine or some kind of apparatus. It is necessary for someone to locate for a spell by the able of a piece of mechanism and turn a wheel or a crank, by which the operation of freezing is brought about. If all the conditions are favorable, this labor is sometimes reduced to a minimum; but it has heretofore been impossible to get away from it entirely. The new freezer consists of a glass cylinder, open at each end, and over three openings there is fitted a glass top. The joints are made tight by means of rubber rings. The jar is filled with ice, with the plugs are held in place by a plug of a wire ball, which is slipped finally into place after the cream, flavoring, fruit and other ingredients have been placed within. SCANDAL IN PARIS

FREEZES WITHOUT LABOR

Mme. Steinhell's Confession Causes Sensation.

HIGH PERSONAGES INVOLVED

Widow of Slain Painter Is Arrested
After Accusing Man of Crime, Declaring She Knew of His Guilt All the Time.

Paris, Nov. 27.—Paris is enjoying one of the greatest sensations in many years, in the development of the Steinhell case. Mme. Steinhell was arrested Thursday night, as a result of her confession that ever since her painter husband and Mme. Japy were murdered May 31 she has known who the murderer was and that she had been exacting a force in her attempts to help the police find the assassin, whom she wished to shield.

Unprecedented scenes were witnessed at the palace of justice while the woman was under examination, guards being required to restrain the crowds from entering. On the boulevards men fought for special editions of newspapers having in them accounts of the case, while in the lobbies of parliament the Nationalists created a hubbub by threatening to call the government to account unless orders were given immediately to probe the scandal to the bottom.

Accuses Man, But Weakens.

Mme. Steinhell made a confession to two newspaper men Wednesday night. She declared that a man named Alexandre Wolff was the murderer of her husband. Wolff was arrested and examined by the authorities. He denied all guilt and said he was ready to prove an alibi. Mme. Steinhell then weakened and said if it was not Wolff the man who did commit the crime resembled him strangely.

Then suspicion turned upon Mme. Steinhell herself, and at six o'clock it was announced that she had been locked up in the prison of St. Lazare under a warrant of arrest. No charge, however, was specified. Wolff also was held, but not on a warrant.

Many Sensational Rumors.

The end of a sensational day brought a crop of sensational rumors. It was said that Minister of Justice Briand had ordered an investigation of the open charge that Mme. Steinhell had been the mistress of M. Leydett, the examining magistrate in the case, and that M. Leydett had been instrumental in stifling the investigation of the case. Chief of Detectives Hamard was credited with the statement that Wolff had practically established his alibi and that upon suspicion had been cast upon Mme. Steinhell. Coullaud, the man arrested several days ago on suspicion, was released.

WAGNER IN FIAT CAR WINS THE GRAND PRIZE

Automobile Race at Savannah Is Spectacular and Fast—Hemery Takes Second Place.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 27.—The Grand Prize automobile race Thursday, 402 miles, was won by Louis Wagner with a Fiat car. The contest was most exciting and the pace was the fastest ever set in an international automobile race in America.

Fate played a game of hide-and-seek with three grimy-headed figures that sat behind big steering wheels and throttles and fought with skill and daring for an advantage of seconds at the finish of the more than six hours of driving through the shifting fumes of burning oil, into storms of sand and gravel thrown up by the flying wheels of the car ahead, at risk of life and limb, for the honor of a trophy cup and a purse of gold.

The three drivers who clung together from the very start were shuffled about like so many cards on the flying laps were rolled away. For a time there was a fourth figure in the leading column, but when little more than a minute separated the first from the last of the cars in the whirling quartette, a caprice of fortune sent one pitching from the road. Out of the mass of wreckage Fritz Eric, who had been driving the German Benz No. 19, was taken with a broken nose and a broken jaw.

Still the struggle continued, and it was not until the last minute of the last lap that the tide of victory turned to Wagner. Nazario, the wonderful Italian driver, holding the world's records and winner of countless contests, who had clung tenaciously to a narrow margin of lead for more than a hundred miles, hesitated long enough at the supply pits to change a weakening tire, and lost.

Hemery, in a German Benz No. 8, favorite of the followers of automobile racing, took second honors. It was not until the official time was announced that the actual winner was known—that Wagner had hurled himself to victory by the slender margin of 56 seconds. Hemery was the first to finish the 16 laps of the race, and enthusiastic thousands hailed him as a winner without heed of the six minutes' grace which Wagner held, Hemery being sent away at the start at 9:52 in the morning and Wagner not getting the word to go until 9:58.

Wagner set a new record for road racing in this country. George Robertson, in the Vanderbilt cup race of 250 miles last month set the mark at 64.3 miles an hour. Thursday for the longer distance of 402 miles, Wagner raised it to 65.5.

CORNELL BEATEN BY QUAKERS.

Pennsylvania Wins at Football—Games in Middle West.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—In a game that was spectacular, at times brilliant and often not quite first-class, the University of Pennsylvania defeated Cornell in the annual Thanksgiving day football game on Franklin field Thursday afternoon by a score of 17 to 4. Pennsylvania thus closed the season without once drinking from the bitter cup of defeat.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 27.—In a brilliant game of football Iowa State College of Ames defeated Drake university Thursday afternoon by the score of 13 to 6. Ames' victory was due largely to the brilliant runs of Hubbard, right half.

Milwaukee, Nov. 27.—Notre Dame university defeated Marquette university Thursday afternoon, 6 to 0, in the best game of football ever played in this city. Notre Dame scored after a series of phenomenal rushes, forward passes and punts.

GERMAN HOSPITAL TESTS AMERICAN DISCOVERY FOR SKIN DISEASES

In the Berlin Hospital for Skin Diseases much interest has been aroused by Dr. J. E. Currier's report on etrox published in the Doctors' Guide. While the hospital is very conservative, Dr. Currier's standing is so high that they determined on a trial of this well-known drug in a selected group of cases.

Dr. Currier, a German, and his associates, following the method of treatment outlined by Dr. Currier, "Dis-ease one teaspoonful pure powder of etrox in two tablespoons hot water and bathe the diseased skin for 20 minutes at a time, twice a day. The solution must be made fresh each time and used warm, taking care to get the pure drug in a sealed package, just as it comes from the etrox works."

The results were amazingly successful, eight cases being cured in three weeks and the other two showing great improvement. The etrox treatment will be used very extensively by German skin specialists.

A great point in its favor hereafter. A great point in its favor is that it is so simple and it is a drug obtainable in any town. It stops the itching immediately and dries up the eruption in a few days.

THE EFFECT

of well lighted show windows, on the public, is surprising. They judge the interior of the store by them. Just as a dark show window attracts no attention, a well lighted one will make many a sale after your doors are locked and business suspended for the day. The amount expended in lighting them is in this way soon made up, as no form of advertising pays as well as light. Ask about our $1.63 per month proposition.

Fred W. Carpenter will be President Taft's private secretary and as such will become an important factor in Washington political and social life during the next four years.

The office of secretary to the president is of the highest importance, requiring a man of quick decision, strong will, smooth diplomacy. He is the official mouthpiece of the administration, and his remarks are quoted as though the president had himself spoken. A slip of the tongue may embarrass the entire nation. In addition to this, he must stand between the president and the outside world when the occasion demands, and must handle the situation in such a way as to not embarrass his superior. He must live, talk and act the life of the president.

Ladies' Aid Society of Afton Change the Date for Holding Annual Event.
[Special to this Gazette.]
Afton, Nov. 26.—At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, held with Mrs. A. J. Stark last Tuesday, it was decided to change the date for holding the annual bazaar from Wednesday, Dec. 9th, to Friday, Dec. 11th. A good line of articles will be offered for sale this year and all will do well to bear in mind the change in date and plan to be present. Supper will be served, beginning at six o'clock and continuing until all are served, at 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. The members of the society are hard at work to make this year's supper and sale a great success and Afton people should show their appreciation of these efforts by a generous patronage.
Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the regular annual business meeting of the Legal Americans, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kothelehn, Friday evening, Dec. 11th. All members of the society should plan to be present.

Telegram Has Been Received Announcing the Death of Mr. Charles Clifford.
[Special to this Gazette.]

Janesville, Nov. 27.—A telegram has been received here from Mrs. Lucy Clifford stating that her son Charles died Tuesday November 24, at Tucson, Arizona, where he was only three or four weeks ago, hoping that the milder climate of the state might be beneficial to the health of Mr. Clifford, who for some time past had been a sufferer from lung trouble. It is expected that the remains will arrive at his home in Plattville, Friday or Saturday and the funeral will probably take place Sunday. This news brought sadness to many hearts here, as Evansville was Mr. Clifford's boyhood home.
The annual supper and ball given by St. Paul's Society, Wednesday evening was a phenomenal success, when one takes into consideration the unfavorable condition of the weather. The night was very dark rainy and boisterous and the roads were almost impassable from the rains which had fallen during the week, but notwithstanding this there was a good attendance, many being present from Janesville, Albany and other places. The supper was liberally patronized by the various societies of the city, and the excellent reputation that the ladies have for serving bounteous and delicious suppers was in no way diminished. The proceeds from the supper alone were ninety dollars and the society are very grateful to all who helped make it a success.
Evansville friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor, former residents here, will be pleased to learn that a little son arrived at their home in Grand Junction, Colorado, Friday November 20. Mrs. Taylor will be remembered as Miss Eva Walker.
A pleasant family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Powles yesterday. A. J. Reeco of Eau Claire was the only out-of-town guest.
B. V. Towler of Milwaukee, has been here adjusting the loss on the barn which burned Saturday night on a farm owned by the D. E. Stevens estate.

John Smith and family of West Nile, Iowa, Miss Rena Tilley of Albany, and Miss Lizzie Rowland of Elroy, are guests at the homes of Charles Ross and Charles England this week.
Betsy Bishop received a telegram Wednesday stating that his mother was very ill at Shelby, Iowa, and Mr. Bishop left on the first train for that place.
A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blaho Wednesday morning, November 25.
Leslie Reckford and Miss Edith Kelsey of Beloit, were here yesterday to attend a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in Spring Grove, on Thursday, November 19th, by the Rev. H. C. Spinks, of Rock Grove, Ill., Mr. Albert Chapman and Miss Edna May Zimmerman. They are on a wedding trip in the west and after December 15th will be at home on the farm south of Juba.
An old fashioned quilting bee took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooker last Thursday, given by Mrs. Hooker and Mrs. Ed. Flemming. The occasion was one of the most enjoyable affairs given in the community for some time. Four comfortables were tied and one quilt was quilted.
Mrs. Wm. Hulen very pleasantly entertained at the Round Daze Club on Monday evening at a Thanksgiving party. The decorations of the table were in keeping with the season as were also the refreshments. It was indeed an unique occasion.
The Postoffice force and rural mail carriers were most pleasantly entertained on Sunday last by Mr. and Mrs. George Ross at a fine dinner. The time was spent in music, social converse and a general good time.
Mr. C. A. Anderson, the efficient and courteous agent of the Hedges Lumber Company, and Mr. Claud Harlick, one of our popular young men have purchased the lumber yard at Merrimack, near Portage, and will take up their residence in that village March first. Broadhead citizens will be sorry to have them leave.

ARRESTED A PORTER
ON LARCENY CHARGE

Harry Packard Taken Into Custody After Being Married Only Few Days.

[Special to this Gazette.]
Beloit, Wis., Nov. 2.—Harry Packard, porter at the Hotel Milton and a benedict of only a few days, was arrested this morning by Chief Scheibel, charged with stealing an overcoat belonging to James Mcagher, a prominent contractor of this city. The overcoat was stolen from the cloak-room at the hotel two weeks ago last Tuesday and although Packard was then suspected of having committed the theft, the officers were unable to find sufficient evidence. However, he was seen this morning wearing an overcoat which the bartender at the hotel believed to be the one stolen and the Chief was notified. Packard was collared and closely questioned but he denied any knowledge of the theft until the coat was found hidden in the basement of the hotel. Then he made a full confession. The coat was valued at $37.00.
Packard is the man who only last week tried to whip Deputy Sheriff Carter, who was attempting to serve a garnishee upon him and being unsuccessful in his battle, Packard then tried to secure a warrant for Carter's

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS TO COLORED Y. M. C. A.

President Helps to Lay the Cornerstone of Their New Building in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Roosevelt Thursday was the guest of honor and chief speaker at the laying of the cornerstone of the new home for the negro Young Men's Christian association. The event was a most notable one among the colored people of the District of Columbia.
Although the weather was not suitable for an out-of-door ceremony of this nature, the attendance was large, including not only a great gathering of negro residents, but many distinguished officials of the federal and local government.

The president appeared at the site of the proposed $100,000 building at Twelfth street between 5 and T streets, within a few minutes of the time set for the beginning of the ceremonies, two p. m. He was given cheer after cheer. E. J. Morton, president of the colored branch of the Y. M. C. A., presided.

Twenty-five thousand dollars of the money for the construction of the building was given by John D. Rockefeller, conditioned that the remainder of the cost of the structure be raised by the colored people. The contractor has promised to construct the building as nearly as possible with colored labor.

The president in mentioning the contribution of Mr. Rockefeller did not mention him by name.

When completed, this building will cost $100,000.

What It Was.
"It is possible," said the speaker, "that some of you have heard the story I am about to tell you, but—"

"Possible?" interrupted a little man away down at one of the tables in the farthest corner. "It's a cinch."

Restorative Treatment for Nervous Men

Coming from a source of unquestioned authority on the ailments of men it is presumed to be infallible, while the profession generally endorse the ingredients and prescribe them in many different forms of various diseases. The following formula is highly efficient in quickly restoring in nervous exhaustion, melancholia, anxiety, timidity in venturing, dizziness, heart palpitation, trembling limbs, insomnia, thinness, cold extremities, tired-out feeling and general inability to do those natural and rational acts which depend on a man's success and happiness in social and everyday life.

The instructions for mixing at home secretly so that no embarrassment may be felt, are as follows: First get three ounces of syrup sarsaparilla compound and one ounce compound fluid balawort; mix and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce (thelma cardione, (not cardamon), and mix all together. The directions are to take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, until bounding health and full strength are restored. Even a few weeks will witness most wonderful results.

As a skin beautifier, skin food and tissue builder, Cutano Cold Cream, our own preparation, is peculiarly successful. Not only the face, but the arms, neck and shoulders, should receive attention to keep them in perfect condition, or, if wanted, to restore their contour and plumpness.

To attain the best results, first cleanse the hands thoroughly with soap and water, dry them and apply alcohol or toilet water. This cools the fingers and renders them firm for the work they are to perform. Now cleanse the skin of face and neck, using warm water and a good toilet soap, which will remove all dust and foreign matter from the skin and open the pores. You are then ready to apply the cream, which should be gently rubbed in with a light massage of 10 or 15 minutes' duration for each part. This is best done at night on retiring.

Cutano Cold Cream is sold in 25c jars and is indispensable to the dressing table.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR and we can PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
"As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to first test in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and totally dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention it really needs to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention it requires to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when this occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon. A plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and revitalize the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowledge of Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

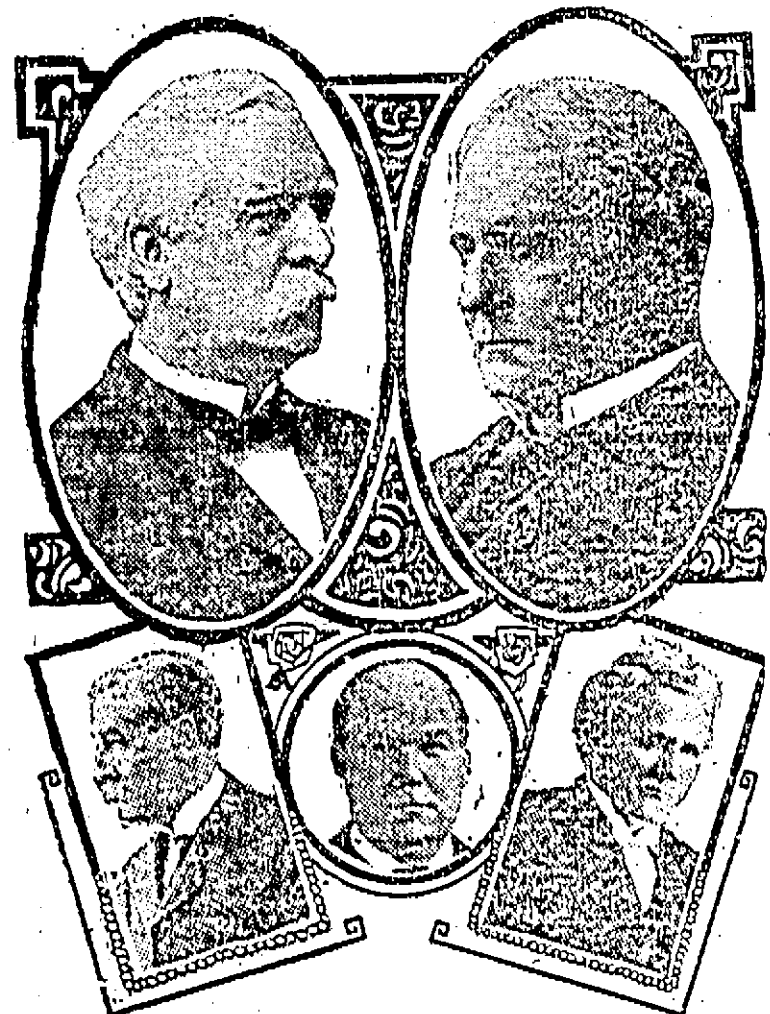

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully stimulating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to revitalize your hair of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

THE 'CURSE' OF DRINK

Most men drink because they say it doesn't hurt them and makes them feel better. Here is what the leading medical dictionary says of alcohol:

"Internally it is a powerful, mental excitant, in large doses, a depressing narcotic POISON."

With this truth before you, do you wonder that when a man's system becomes accustomed to this poison, that your arguments and pleadings fail to stop him from drinking.

He can no more stop without medical aid, than can the opium, morphine, or cocaine user.

White Ribbon Remedy will remove the alcohol from his system and cause him to even hate the smell of liquor.

You don't have to get his consent to take White Ribbon Remedy as it is a perfectly harmless powder, that has neither taste, odor or color. You can give it to him in any food or drink, even in plain water.

So confident are we that this remedy can destroy all desire for liquor in any person, that we agree to return your money if it fails to do so.

"For worse," he said, "I took a nap on a new dinner gown of mine, and I slipped her. And the other day Drina hid in a clothespress while Nina was discussing my private affairs, and when the little imp emerged I could have shaken her. Oh, I am certainly becoming indurated. So if you are, too, comfort yourself with the knowledge that I am keeping pace with you through the winter of my discontent."

"I am wondering," he said in a bantering voice, "what secrets Drina heard."

"Would you like to know what Nina was saying to me?" she asked.

"I'd rather hear what you said to her. Were you laughing or weeping?"

"Perhaps I was yawning. How do you know?" she smiled.

After a moment he said, still curious, "Why were you crying, Ellen?"

"Crying? I didn't say I was crying."

"I assume it."

"Well—yes," she admitted, "I was crying—if you insist on knowing. Now that you have driven me to admit that, can you also force me to tell you why I was so fearful?"

"Certainly," he said promptly; "it was something Nina said that made you cry."

They both laughed.

"Oh, what a come-down!" she said teasingly. "You knew that before. But can you force me to confess to you what Nina was saying?"

"What Nina was saying? If you can, you are the cleverest cross-examiner in the world, for I'd rather perish than tell you."

"Oh," he said instantly, "then it was something about love?"

He had not meant to say it. He had spoken too quickly, and the flush of surprise on the girl's face was matched by the color rising to his own temples.

And, to retrieve the situation, he spoke too quickly again—and too lightly.

"A girl would rather perish than admit that she is in love?" he said, forcing a laugh. "That is rather a clever deduction, I think. Unfortunately, however, I happen to know to the contrary, so all my cleverness comes to nothing."

The surprise had faded from her face, but the color remained, and with it something else—something in the blue eyes which he had never before encountered there—the faintest trace of recoil, obtruding away from him.

She was beginning to love him no longer in her own sweet fashion, but in his, and she was vaguely aware of it, yet curiously passive and content to put no question to herself whether it was true or false. And how it might be with him she dared not ask herself too. Only the quickening of breath and pulse questioned the pure thoughts unveiled; only the increasing impatience of her suspense confirmed the answer which now, perhaps, she might give him one day while the blessed world was young.

He had not yet spoken when again she lifted her eyes and saw him sitting in the dusk, one arm resting across his knee, his body bent slightly forward, his gaze vacant.

He did not stir. Then, unreasoning, instinctive fear confused her, and she heard her own voice, sounding strangely in the twilight:

"Why you are so silent with me. What has crept in between us? I—the innocent courage sustaining her—'I have not changed, except a little—in the way you wished. Have you?'"

"No," he said in an altered voice.

"Then what is it? I have been— you have left me so much alone this winter, and I supposed I understood."

"My work," he said, but she scarcely knew the voice for his.

"I know; you have had no time. I know that. I ought to know it by this time, for I have told myself often enough. And yet when we are together it is—it has been—different. Can you tell me why? Do you think me changed?"

"You must not change," he said.

The mounting sea of passion swept him. He turned on her unsteadily, his hands clenched, not daring to touch her, shame, contrition, horror that the damage was already done, all were forgotten. Only the deadly grim duty of the moment held him back.

"Dear," he said, "because I am un—" changed—because I—'I love' you so help me, and God help us both!"

"Tell me," she said steadily, but it was fear that stilled her voice. She laid one slim hand on the table, bearing down on the points of her fingers until the nails whitened, but her head was high and her eyes met his, straight, unwavering.

"I—I know it," she said. "I understood there was something. If it is trouble, and I see it is, bring it to me. If I am the woman you took me for, give me my part in this. It is the quickest way to my heart, Captain Selwyn. I ask it."

"Why?"

Her eyes watered, then returned his gaze.

"For love of you," she said, as white as death.

He caught his breath sharply and straightened out, passing one hand across his eyes. When she saw his face again in the dim light it was ghastly.

"There was a woman," he said, "for whom I was once responsible." He spoke wearily, head bent, resting the weight of one arm on the table against which she leaned. "Do you understand?" he asked.

"Yes. You mean—Mrs. Ruthven."

"I mean her. Afterward, when matters had altered, I came home."

He raised his head and looked about him in the darkness.

"Come home," he repeated, "no longer a man—the shadow of a man, with no hope, no outlook, no right to hope."

He leaned heavily on the table, his arm rigid, looking down at the floor as he spoke.

"No right to hope. Others told me that I still possessed that right. I know they were wrong. I do not mean that they persuaded me. I persuaded myself that, after all, perhaps my right to hope remained to me. I persuaded myself that I might be, after all, the substance, not the shadow."

He looked up at her.

"And so I dared to love you."

She gazed at him, scarcely breathing.

"Then," he said, "came the awakening. My dream had ended."

She waited, the lace on her breast scarcely stirring, so still she stood, so pitifully still.

"Such responsibility cannot lie while those live who undertook it. I believed it until I desired to believe it no longer."

He took one step toward her, and his voice fell so low that she could just hear him.

"She has lost her mind, and the case is hopeless. Those to whom the laws of the land have given care of her, turned on her, threatened her with disgrace. And when one friend of hers halted this miserable conspiracy her madly came swiftly upon her, and suddenly she found herself helpless, penniless, abandoned, her mind already clouded and clouding faster. Ellen, was there then the shadow of a doubt as to the responsibility? I dare not utter one word of love to you. I dare not touch you. What chance is there for such a man as I?"

"No chance—for us," she whispered. "Go!"

For a second he stood motionless, then, swaying slightly, turned on his heel.

And long after he had left the house she still stood there, eyes closed, colorless lips set, her slender body quivering, racked with the first fierce grief of a woman's love for a man.

Chapter 26

BERGARD had already begun to make mistakes. The first was in thinking that, among those whose only distinction was their wealth, his own wealth permitted him the same insolence and ruthlessness that so frequently characterized them.

He had unwittingly dispensed with Gerald; he had shouldered Fano and Harmon out of his way when they objected to the purchase of Bergard's acreage adjoining the Slothwell preserve and its incorporation as an integral portion of the club tract; thus he was preparing to rid himself of Ruthven for another reason. But he was not yet quite ready to spurn Ruthven, because he wanted a little more

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

The strong man is as helpless as a child when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his everyday actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach, then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexas Dyspepsia Tablets would have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexas Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and indigestion can never bother you.

Rexas Dyspepsia Tablets cure stomach troubles by supplying the one element, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They enable the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexas Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to cure indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

SCENE FROM WAGENHALS & KEMPER CO.'S PRODUCTION OF EUGENE WALTER'S "PAID IN FULL"

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Nov. 28, 1868.—(Union Services on Thanksgiving Day.)—The Congregationalists, Methodists, Presbyterians and Baptists of this city, held services in the Baptist church. The pastors of each church assisted in the services. The house was well-filled. Rev. Bradford of the Presbyterian church preached the sermon of the day.

Congregational Church.—The roof of this fine church is completed and the building will soon be enclosed. The work upon the interior will be continued during the winter. When completed it will be one of the finest churches in the state.

At All Soul's Church.—Prof. Wm. H. Holmgren will deliver a series of lectures at the All Soul's church on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week on the Ancient Egypt. He will give an account of the recently discovered hieroglyphics and the monumental records which contain them, such as tombs and pyramids. He will also give an account of the arts, sciences, manners and customs, institutions and religions, in use a long time prior to the time of Moses and Abraham.

AMERICA LEADS IN DIVORCE.

One Marriage in Twelve Ends in Legal Separation.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Higher divorce rate in the United States than in any of the foreign countries where statistics are available, is announced by the census bureau, which in a bulletin just issued says that at least one marriage in twelve in this country ultimately terminates in divorce.

The report covers the 20 years from 1887 to 1906, inclusive. From 1887 to 1906 there were 12,532,014 marriages and 946,625 divorces, against 328,716 divorces for the preceding 20 years. Divorce is now 2 1/2 times as common, compared with the married population, as it was 40 years ago. Utah and Connecticut are the only two states showing decreased divorce rate. Divorce caused 38.9 of the total divorces in the 20 years, almost half of the divorces being granted to the husband for this cause and about one-third to the wife for the same cause.

Old Romance Ends in Marriage. Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 27.—The marriage Thursday night of D. A. McKinley of Twin Falls, Mont., member of the Montana legislature, and Mrs. Harriet Friedlin of Dubuque was the result of a revival of a romance of their younger days. While sweethearts years ago in Cuttenburg, Ia., Mr. McKinley went west, where he prospered. In the course of time both married and later their life partners died. Recently they met and the spark of other days was kindled.

Rescued by Life-Savers. Chicago, Nov. 27.—Swept by a fierce gale far out into the lake in an open boat, one man gone, and the small craft half filled with water, Otto Wengle, 607 Cornelia street, and Peter G. Meyer, 417 Burt avenue, faced what seemed to be their death Thursday morning when they were rescued by the life-saving crew which sped 11 miles to their aid in a motor-boat.

Eels Disable Lighting Plant. Middleton, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Three eels put E. H. Hartman's electric light works out of business at Arden. The lighting plant receives its water power from Echo lake, on Mr. Hartman's estate. When the stoppage occurred on investigation was made and it was found that a trio of eels had lodged in the nozzle feeding the turbine wheel.

announces the arrival at Galveston of a consignment of coolies, shipped from China under ordinary bills of lading. "Two thirds of the persons are females, one of whom is said to be very beautiful," and the Journal from which we quote adds that the consignment purpose selling them at auction to pay freight and charges.

The Alabama Claims.—Washington, Nov. 27.—The Herald Washington dispatch states that the convention agreed upon by Minister Johnson and Lord Stanley, for the settlement of the Alabama claims, is undoubtedly in the hands of the President. It provides for the appointment of three commissioners, two by Great Britain and one by the United States, who shall sit as the commission in Washington, and their decisions on all the claims shall be rendered within twelve months from their assembling. From their decision there shall be no appeal by either party.

Counter Claims.—A Washington dispatch says that the British Legation has at length produced a bill against the United States Government, as an offset to the Alabama claims, amounting to $4,500,000, being for damages alleged to have been sustained by British subjects in the South during the rebellion.

Your Mirror
Does It Reflect Beauty?

Does it show an otherwise beautiful face, perfect contour, utterly ruined by a coarse, pored skin, marred by humiliating blotches and wrinkles?

It does it is simply the fault of your own neglect. It is easily within the reach of every woman to possess a pure, elastic skin, free from every blemish, radiant with the youthful glow of a magnificent complexion.

The skin is extremely delicate and may be easily ruined. Don't make experiments with unknown, or new and untried preparations. Carefully choose those standard preparations that are used and recommended by fastidious women who are competent judges.

MRS. AUGUSTUS HARTJE, PLAINTIFF IN MILLIONAIRE DIVORCE CASE WHICH STARTLES SOCIETY FOLK IN PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Pa.—The Hartje divorce fight has been reopened in Judge J. S. Frazier's court and the evidence at this trial promises to be almost as sensational as that produced at the former hearings of the troubles of the millionaire paper manufacturer, and his wife. What the result of this fight is to be is problematical, but at present local public sentiment is largely with the plaintiff.

wife. Then Hartje brought in the name of Thomas Madine, another coachman. He produced in court a huge bunch of love letters which he asserted his wife had written to Madine. She denied the authorship and Madine testified for her.

In this suit Mrs. Hartje alleges her husband had used his millions to buy over Madine. In her bill she says: "I aver that Augustus Hartje has sent agents to Europe for the purpose of manufacturing false testimony against me and that he corrupted Thomas Madine, a witness in my behalf, and procured him by the payment of a large sum of money to leave this country and go to Ireland."

FOR PIMPLES, TOO

New Discovery Cures Eczema and Graduates Minor Skin Troubles Overnight. A few months ago the dispensers of posium, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it. Provisions to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories. Since this change in the method of distribution, posium has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last 30 years. All leading druggists, including Helmetree's, The Smith Drug Co., and the People's Drug Co. in Janesville are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.

This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in eczema cases, posium stops the itching with first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show for an overnight application. Experimental samples of posium are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

W. J. LITTS & CO.
Cor. Milwaukee and River Sts.
JANESVILLE, WIS.

Only Lent by God.

All things, my lord, in this world pass away; wife, children, honor, wealth, friends and what also is dear to flesh and blood. They are but lent until God please to call for them back again, that we may not esteem anything our own or set our hearts upon anything but 'him alone, who only remains forever.—Lord Baltimore, in a Letter of Sympathy, A. D. 1631.

Queer Swiss Customs.

Swiss cheese is made in Switzerland from cow's milk. It is the custom to make a saanen cheese at the birth of a child and eat it at the burial of a son of the child for whom it is made.

Remunerative Exchange.

Japan gets a better price for its exported home-grown rice than it pays for the large quantity imported from China and home consumed. That's a Japanese way of making money.

Honey Able to Be Out.

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—Francis J. Honey celebrated Thanksgiving day by taking an automobile ride in Golden Gate Park. He was accompanied by his wife, Dr. Deasley, Rudolph Spruckles, William J. Burns and James Foley, his bodyguard. He is rapidly regaining strength.

Shoe Repairing.

London Bros., 12 N. Franklin St. Fine shoe repairing. Years of experience. All work guaranteed.
